

On September 8th, the Board agreed to forgo rescheduling August's Board meeting as not enough people were able to make the same time for proposed rescheduled dates. It was agreed that August's discussion items would be moved to September's Board meeting agenda instead.