5. General Manager

D. Ghosn was absent from the meeting, so K. Murray read his report aloud.

K. Murray briefly went over the Fulcrum’s financials.

K. Murray noted that D. Ghosn added the new Board of Directors names to the gmail account and on the Fulcrum’s website.

D. Ghosn reported that he and A. Sharma have held several interviews and knowledge tests for the Social Media Manager and other positions. He communicated that the hiring team is still in the process of completing a few more interviews and tests as several of the candidates for the editorial positions are out of town and unavailable for skype calls.

In his report, D. Ghosn explained that he’s been still staying in contact or trying to get in contact with clients that have still yet to pay, adding that each client is different as some might outsource their accounting departments and require additional steps.

D. Ghosn indicated that someone from UOttawa Health and Safety visited the office on Sunday for its annual inspection. He reported that everything seemed to be okay overall, however there are a few things that the Fulcrum will need to keep up at the office, such as not having items on the top two shelves of the bookshelves because they’re not drilled into the wall. D. Ghosn went on to note that there are other areas that UOttawa is responsible for, such as the tiling that’s cracked on the first floor.

D. Ghosn mentioned in his report that he called to inquire about the cancellation fee for the fax line. He explained that the Fulcrum is currently being charged $34.94+tax per month, and if the Fulcrum were to cancel the line, we would be charged $25 per month for the remaining 18 months left on the contract for a total cancellation fee of $450. With that said, D. Ghosn stated that there would be an $80 charge to have a technician come in to reconfigure all the lines because the internet is currently connected to the fax line. The Board discussed its options and all agreed that D. Ghosn should cancel the fax line as it would save the Fulcrum about $120.

D. Ghosn announced that the Fulcrum has finally received its cheque from the SFUO and that it’s been deposited.

D. Ghosn’s report concluded with him informing the Board that he got in contact with Brigitte from UOttawa to arrange the pickup of the unused newsstands in the Fulcrum’s basement.

6. Editor-in-Chief

A. Sharma began her report by announcing that the testing is complete for all core staff interviews. She went on to state that the social media manager and production manager positions have been hired, and that the rest of the core staff should be hired by the end of the week. A. Sharma added that support staff hiring opens tomorrow.

A. Sharma explained that she trained the social media manager a bit, and that there should be content up soon. She noted that she’s trying to put new content up on the website, and that she’s looking to cover Bluesfest.

A. Sharma mentioned that she showed D. Ghosn how to update the Fulcrum’s website. She went on to note that she will give K. Bobal the publishing schedule this week.

A. Sharma indicated that she’ll have an updated constitution ready soon. She added that she also plans on showing a before and after of the social media numbers for this month and last month.
J. Rausseo suggested that the Fulcrum could direct professors to have their students write letters to the editor for the Fulcrum if they’re interested.

7. President

R. Sheikh-Khalil began her report by stating that the finance committee met to finalize the budget, which is now complete and will be approved later this meeting. She added that she’ll go over the notes on the budget lines later too.

R. Sheikh-Khalil explained how she’s been trying to contact the SFUO for weeks.

R. Sheikh-Khalil noted that the marketing and branding committee met to go over website changes among other things.

R. Sheikh-Khalil indicated that the Board will be having training later today, and more throughout the year as well. R. Sheikh-Khalil motioned to add to more minutes to the discussion item. J. Rausseo seconded the motion. All voted in favour and the motion passed. R. Sheikh-Khalil continued that the two main trainings this year will be the Board training later today and the Ed and Board training in the fall.

8. HR

The Board reviewed Christine Wang’s application documents and proposed contract. All greed that the footer at the bottom of her contract should be removed and then reprinted.

J. Rausseo asked A. Sharma what her vision is for the Social Media Manager to push the Fulcrum forward. A. Sharma replied that she plans to:

- Have new contact everyday; a lot more interaction with readers,
- Be above the Charleton at least on Facebook,
- Have a much bigger presence on campus,
- Avoid the previous problems due to lack of communication by having more accountability and getting routine analytics reports

R. Sheikh-Khalil motioned to approve Christine’s contract with the changes mentioned above. G. Robertson seconded the motion. All voted in favour and the motion passed.
The Board then proceeded to review Kaylum’s contract. R. Sheikh-Khalil motioned to add five more minutes to the discussion item. J. Rausseo seconded the motion. R. Sheikh-Khalil motioned to accept all the proposed amendments to the Policy Manual in a omnibus vote. J. Rausseo seconded the motion. All voted in favour and the motion passed. R. Sheikh-Khalil motioned to approve the amendments to the Policy Manual and Bylaws. J. Turcotte seconded the motion. All voted in favour and the motion passed.

10. Marketing and Branding

G. Robertson stated that the marketing and branding committee met to discuss the website revamp and branding strategies and initiatives to promote the Fulcrum’s move to online. G. Robertson noted that some of the ideas for the website revamp include:

- Making the website more visually accessible and appealing, less drab,
- Updating the volunteer page and pictures,
- Condensing the website by removing some of the things at the bottom of the page,
- Keeping older issues on the website instead of having visitors going to an external website.

He continued by going over some of the branding ideas for promoting the switch to online, which include:

- Video campaign,
- Social media contest,
- Hashtag/tagline for the transition
- BBQ during 101 week
- Advertise at movies on campus during 101 week and in residences
- Perhaps having merchandise at Agora

R. Sheikh-Khalil said that the committee will need to sit down and schedule things, and that this will be a priority going forward for the next month in particular.

Then there were other areas on the list that they mentioned but would be in the hands of UOttawa, for example, some of the tiling is cracked on the first floor.

WSID: increased to $1100 because things were a bit higher than budgeted this year

Board: budgeted $1000 for room bookings and food

CUP Fees: $300 (fee decreased at NASH)

Office: budgeted $3000, includes things such as: cheques, Adobe, ink, Google Drive
