Closing thoughts: Thank you to Amira Benjamin for making this year possible and the whole team for putting faith in us! I'm so pleased with how the year has gone. We brought many new faces to the Fulcrum and I can't wait to see these folks grow into highly competent student journalists over the next few years. I'm looking forward to seeing Kavi and Andrew guide a new team next year and trust they'll be great leaders. As long as the Fulcrum continues to be useful to the students/community members of the U of O, we will serve the purpose of giving a platform/voice that counters the administration or balances their narratives. This year we covered UOSU more closely and
